

My Men Are My Heroes: The Brad Kasal Story

By Brad Kasal, Nathaniel R. Helms

Meredith Books, 2007. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: A riveting account of combat heroism, an analysis of the roots of upstanding personal qualities, and a classic tale of a small-town boy rising to the challenge of world events. The battle for Fallujah as it's never been told, in the words of America's heroic Brad Kasal, who led his men door-to-door into the deadly din of enemy fire. While recovering from his war injuries, Kasal awaits the results of his nomination for the nation's highest combat award, the Medal of Honor. Military insiders say Kasal is likely to become the first Marine Corps recipient of the medal since Vietnam. Kasal's story details his valiant exploits in Iraq and his principles of leadership and loyalty.
