Excerpt: .by French, Wenck fairly held his own, and placed the victory to the credit of the N. Y. A. C. by twenty yards, French beating Neumann, of Chicago, by three yards, for the place. Louis Fitzgerald finished fourth in the tub race, while prohibitive allowances in the 80yards handicap barred the New York men from any chance of victory. The water polo game between the Chicago A. A. and Knickerbocker A. C. was won by Chicago. Four goals to one. On the second evening, when the championship races took place, the Chicago A. A. team was reinforced by the Milwaukee swimmer, G. Whittaker, who captured two of the three events on the card. Those who remember Normandie Murray s great effort for the 100-yards championship last year, can easily depict how he fought every inch of the water with the Chicago crack. Whittaker, however,...
