Thomas, Vice-Pres. and Sec y, Marion, Ind. MUNCIE NORMAL INSTITUTE, Muncie; M. D. Kelly, Pres. School s Announcement.--The success of the Muncie Normal Institute is unprecedented in the history of the educational world today. When less than four years ago President M. D. Kelly conceived the idea of inspiring and combining different forces to make a great vocational and industrial school the idea to many seemed impractical, even visionary, but the fact that today, at the closing of its third year of its existence, more than 3,000 students are taking advantage of this great opportunity is conclusive evidence that the Idea, instead of being a dream, was rather a prophetic vision, a clear foresight of the evolution of education in this, the twentieth century. It is well conceded by educators today that true education means more than a training of the mind--the cultural studies--it means the development of the...
