By V A Wedhorn

Helm Publishing, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Vin Libassi (illustrator). 223 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Twenty years ago a murder was committed in the kingdom of Kallamar. The king, queen and their entire court were slaughtered while the queen made ready to give birth to twins. Now, the fourteen kingdoms of Kallamar are under rule of a regent and on the verge of war when a young battlemage named Damien Daverge is told by the insurgent rulers that he is the rightful heir to the kingdoms. Damien has only a few weeks to find a way to prove that he is the true and rightful ruler before his cousin comes of age and takes the throne for himself, and before the forgotten exile of the Elvynn Masters who once ruled their world return to claim the slaves that were once theirs.

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
