Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Life of the Master: A Poem For some time past my mind has been led to contemplate the life and doctrines of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. So deeply was my mind impressed that I felt impelled to commit them to manuscript. My failing health and eyesight, during the time employed in writing these verses, seem to have been compensated by a stronger appreciation of the simplicity of the Savior s teachings - their adaptability to the human wants, and the sublime grandeur of His sufferings and death for the redemption of the human family. Dear Brother Jones: I return herewith the typewritten copy of your story in verse entitled, The Life of the Master. I have read it with much interest and feel that it cannot fail to do good to all who read it; it is the old story beautifully retold. I trust the poem will be read by many.
