Hendren, State Examiner: For the Period From July 1, 1914, to June 30, 1916 Hon. Samuel M. Ralston, Governor: The success and appreciation of the special report filed for your consideration under date of July 29, 1914, have prompted me to again undertake a statement of the purposes of the public accounting law and the progress made by the State Board of Accounts. The former report was given general circulation, and requests for copies were received from other state departments and from students of economics in this and other states. We were favored with many words of commendation of the report. All of which is very gratifying to the officials of the board, and is especially significant as indicating the practicability and effectiveness of our law. The public accounting law of Indiana is unanimously endorsed, and we are convinced is the best and most economical accounting law of any state in the Union. Practically all of the opposition that exists to the State Board of Accounts and any adverse criticism...
